

Whakatane

Did you know?

Wairaka, the lady on the rock is a statue at the Whakatane harbour entrance

94% of Whakatane Beacon readers are loyal, reading no other daily paper

White Island, New Zealand's only active marine volcano, is visible from Whakatane

Ohope Beach, scene of the National Surf Lifesaving Championships, is just 7km from Whakatane township

What's on?

9 Apr

Bad Moon Rising: Credence Clearwater Revival Tribute - Ohope Chartered Club

17 Apr

Mataatua Waka Ama Regatta - Whakatane River

21 May

Laughing Samoans - Island Time - Liberty Centre, Whakatane

20 Nov

Julians Berry Farm & Cafe Tois Challenge - Rex Morpeth Park, Whakatane

Whakatane Beacon

Published: Morning Tuesday, Wednesday & Friday

Page Size: Tabloid 8x8 modules

Readership: 16,000

Weekly Coverage: 21,000

Whakatane Beacon readers

47%

are aged between 30 and 59

21 mins

spent reading the Beacon each day - over an hour each week

21,000

will have read at least one copy over the course of the week

Talk to us

info@newsworks.nz

09 306 1600

www.newsworks.nz

